

"SCRUFFY EAGLE" WEBSITE UPDATES LIST - Part 1

Dates and details of updates to this website during 2010.

NOTE: This website gets restructured, and documents shuffled from place to place, whenever the whim strikes me or the perceived need yanks on my sleeve. Therefore, links in the update list become outdated and might not be accurate beyond when they're in the most recent update date's entry. I recommend using the Main Page of the website (or topic index pages) - the links on those are always up to date. Also, if anyone wonders why I'm posting this as a .pdf document instead of HTML, here's the explanation: It's much easier to type stuff in this way; i.e., saves a LOT of effort.

January, 2009

01/03/10:

1) Updated the Copyright includes from all years, to show 2010 as end year instead of 2009.

This is just standard yearly website maintenance.

2) New document, "THE SCRUFFY HALL OF SHAME".

This is really long overdue. I decided to go ahead and start it, now that I had a 2nd band to enter into the list. (The 1st one was the "Vic Ferrari" band.)

3) Updated the "SESSIONS - BANDS I SAT IN WITH" page.

This updates, re. placing the "Sassy Magoo" band into the "Scruffy Hall Of Shame". I also removed the links that would have otherwise led visitors to that band's web page.
