

The following is the lyrics for the Scruffy Eagle song, "Fatherless Children". I wrote & composed this song as an attempt to accurately portray the plight of fatherless children in an artistic manner. I've posted a recorded copy online at soundclick.com. You can download or listen to it at:

"Fatherless Children"

MRU: 09/16/08 Copyright (C) 2008, by: scruffyeagle.com. All Rights Reserved.

Fatherless children - they don't get everything they need.
Fatherless children have a very hard time, trying to grow up... healthy.

And, the feminazi lawyers want to make a world without fathers.
It's a will to power, riding money from the mothers,
And, they claim it's "for the sake of social change".

Fatherless children - they don't get everything they need.

Mother wants the world to say, she sacrifices.
All the friends she made in aerobics class, have taught her devices.

And, her boyfriends have no vested interest, in replacing fathers.
Children grow up so fast, and their childhood is trashed - innocence can't be retrieved.

Fatherless children do the best they can, in a bad situation.
Broken home children need their fathers, more than just weekend vacations.

A life of crime, to have to grow up without your father.
When you're kidnapped in court, when your parents divorce;
when you're nothing more than property.

Fatherless children - they don't get everything they need - oh, no!
Fatherless children have a very hard time, trying to grow up healthy.
